Lettuce

BABY

When outside temperatures in Ohio drop into single digits, we bring our lettuce inside for shelter. The gentle indoor environment of the greenhouse yields lettuces with the same range of flavors and sizes you love, yet with a softer, tenderer body. Due to seasonal fluctuations, some varieties are available in limited quantities and sizes. Please ask your product specialist about availability when you order.

Bibb

Green Bibb
succulent & buttery with a raw pea finish

Green Rosette
a tight, shallow head with petal-like leaves. sweet, crisp, slightly fruity

Red Rosette
a broad head with tender petal-like leaves. slightly bitter & savory with notes of parsnip

Leaf

Green Tango
sharp-tipped ruffled leaves with notes of hops, nicely balanced between sweet & bitter

Painted Oak
mild, earthy & balanced. speckled oak-shaped leaves with hints of carrot *petite only

Green Oak
brilliant emerald leaves with a hearty, soft body. sweet at the stem, bitter toward the tips *ultra and baby only

Red Oak
tender, smooth oak-shaped leaves. crisp stems. mildly bitter with a clean, sweet finish.

Lolla Rossa
voluminous frilled leaves tipped with red. bright, balanced flavor

Crispleaf

Reine D' Glaces
succulent leaves with prominent veins. earthy & savory, with notes of carrot & celery. sweet at the stem, bitter at the tips

Speckled Crispleaf
mildly bitter with sweet radish notes
*petite only

Painted Crispleaf
tart & toothsome with celery notes

Romaine

Green Romaine
spoon-shaped leaves with a snappy crispness. Initially sweet with a bitter finish

Red Rose
long leaves fade from red to green with pink-tipped stems & pink veins. classic romaine flavor & crispness

Speckled Density
tender, mild & clean with light walnut notes & full, round mouthfeel

Lettuce Fun Fact!

"Outredgeous" is the first-ever lettuce to be grown in space -- aboard the International Space Station during Expedition 44 in August 2015. The experiment was part of NASA's attempts to provide future astronauts with a sustainable food source. Expedition 44 marked the first time astronauts were able to eat what they grew.

Outredgeous
loose, red Romaine with crisp texture & mild flavor

Sweet Romaine
succulent leaves with notes of celery & watercress. crisp & substantial
